

2024-2025 Professional Activity Day Descriptions – SECONDARY

2024-2025 Professional Activity Day Descriptions Secondary Schools

Date, Timing, Format	Schools Participating	Topic or focus of the activities	Learning and delivery methods	Content	Facilitator/Host
August 28th, 2024, AM In Person BOARD DIRECTED (Promoting Mental Health and Well-Being)	O’Gorman High School	Promoting Mental Health and Well-Being Faith Formation	Independent reflection, small group discussions and facilitated large group sharing.	School communities will celebrate a return to school mass in their local parish. In school teams, they will engage in discussion around faith as a protective factor for supporting mental health and well-being. They will engage in planning tier-one strategies to promote safe and welcoming school environments that support the well-being of all.	Organized by the school board and facilitated by School Administrators.
August 28th, 2024, PM In- Person/On-Line BOARD DIRECTED (Occupational Health and Safety Training)	O’Gorman High School	Mandatory Health & Safety Training	Large group lecture and procedural review, and individual online training module completion.	Educators will engage in mandatory health and safety training, including training relating to incident reporting mechanisms and de-escalation strategies.	Organized by the school board and facilitated by School Administrators. Online training platforms (Vector Solutions).
August 29th, 2024, AM In- Person/On-Line PROVINCIAL PRIORITIES (Bullying and school safety; PPM 161 Training)	O’Gorman High School	Student Safety and Violent Incident Prevention Mandatory Health & Safety Training	Large group lecture and procedural review, and small group discussions with facilitated sharing. Individual online training module completion.	Schools will review school-based response plans relating to escalation of student behaviour and progressive discipline strategies and practices. Educators will engage in mandatory health and safety training, including training relating to Managing Prevalent Medical Conditions (PPM 161).	Organized by the school board and facilitated by School Administrators. Online training platforms (Vector Solutions).

2024-2025 Professional Activity Day Descriptions – SECONDARY

Date, Timing, Format	Schools Participating	Topic or focus of the activities	Learning and delivery methods	Content	Facilitator/Host
August 29th, 2024, PM In Person PROVINCIAL PRIORITIES (Curriculum implementation, emphasis on literacy and STEM)	O’Gorman High School	Exploring new and recently revised curriculum including Gr. 9 Geography, Gr. 9/10 Business Studies, Gr. 9/10 Tech Ed., Gr. 10 Career Studies, Gr. 9 English, Gr. 9 Math. Focus on effective strategies to support destreamed grade 9.	Collaborative review and planning in small groups. Facilitated large group sharing.	In small groups, teachers will review curriculum documents for key subjects that have been recently revised and discuss potential instructional strategies and supports to respond to the new expectations. They will then engage in a large group discussion to identify effective instructional practices to support student achievement in destreamed classes.	Facilitated by curriculum department heads and school administration.
September 27th, 2024, AM In Person with schools connected virtually to a presenter. PROVINCIAL PRIORITIES (Guidance and Career Education)	O’Gorman High School	Making connections to skilled trades, transferable skills, and apprenticeship	Guest speaker presentation to large group	Dr. Jon Callegher, Executive Director of Job Talks, will explore five reasons to support apprenticeship pathways in a data-backed presentation focused on the Ontario job market. Concepts of what a “good job” entails, the physical and mental health benefits inherent in the skilled trades, and an exploration of student-specific skills that align to both university/college pathways AND skilled trades pathways will be highlighted.	Dr. Jon Callegher, Executive Director Job Talks (jobtalks.ca)
September 27th, 2024 PM In-Person with schools connected virtually to presenter. PROVINCIAL PRIORITIES (Cell phones and vaping)	O’Gorman High School	Supporting educator understanding of the academic and health impacts of vaping and excessive cellphone use.	Workshops facilitated by board staff and independent or small group review of resources materials.	Training to support educators understanding of the academic and health impacts of vaping and excessive cellphone use, with an emphasis on enforcement requirements and effective classroom management strategies. Resources and tools for educator use will be shared.	Organized and facilitated by school board staff and co-facilitated by School Administrators.

2024-2025 Professional Activity Day Descriptions – SECONDARY

Date, Timing, Format	Schools Participating	Topic or focus of the activities	Learning and delivery methods	Content	Facilitator/Host
November 1st, 2024, AM In Person with schools connected virtually to presenter. PROVINCIAL PRIORITIES (Mathematics)	O’Gorman High School	Understanding high-impact instructional practices to support student success in mathematics, including Universal Design for Learning.	Large group learning with opportunities for individual reflection and small group discussion.	TBD	TBD
November 1st, 2024 PM In Person with schools connected virtually to presenter. PROVINCIAL PRIORITIES (Literacy)	O’Gorman High School	Exploring literacy skill development with a focus on reading and word study across the content areas.	Large group learning with opportunities for individual reflection and small group discussion.	Vocabulary development across subject areas. Morphology is often thought of as something taught in language lessons; however teachers of all subjects can harness the power of exploring word structure to teach vocabulary and understanding of concepts for all students, which can transfer across subject areas and reduce cognitive load.	Facilitator: Liisa Freure, M.Ed, OCT Fundamental Learning (funlearning.ca)
January 31st, 2025 AM/PM In-Person BOARD DIRECTED (Multiple Theme Day)	O’Gorman High School	Student Achievement Plan Progress Review Curriculum and Assessment	Large group discussion and individual work.	Teachers will review Student Achievement Plan goals and describe progress made to date. Focus will include identifying potential barriers to success and ensuring appropriate resources are available to support the school strategies. Teachers will complete reporting activities and engage in planning and programming to support semester 2 courses.	Organized by school board staff and facilitated by school administration.

2024-2025 Professional Activity Day Descriptions – SECONDARY

Date, Timing, Format	Schools Participating	Topic or focus of the activities	Learning and delivery methods	Content	Facilitator/entity that is hosting the activities
April 4th, 2025, AM In Person BOARD DIRECTED (Multiple Theme Day)	O’Gorman High School	To be determined based on Teacher Annual Learning Plans	Self-selected learning activities may include webinars, small-group activities, and independent learning opportunities.	To be determined based on Teacher Annual Learning Plans	Self-directed
April 4th, 2025, PM In-Person BOARD DIRECTED (Mental Health)	O’Gorman High School	Professional activities that promote educator self-care to support effective practice in classrooms.	Experiential learning opportunities in small groups or individually.	TBD
June 7th, 2024 AM/PM In-Person BOARD DIRECTED (Multiple Theme Day)	O’Gorman High School	Student Achievement Plan Progress Review Curriculum and Assessment	Large group discussion and departmental collaborative planning.	Teachers will review Student Achievement Plan goals and describe progress made over the year, with a focus on identifying strategies to implement in the upcoming school year. In their department groups, teachers will collaborate to manage resources and supplies required to support programming for the upcoming school year.	Organized by school board staff and facilitated by school administration.